

Not For Profit Marketing & Fundraising Training

Behind the scenes ... Practical tips to make campaigns a hit!

Tuesday November 8th 2005

9.30am - 4pm

Hampstead Theatre

"We are delighted that the event was so successful, it was incredibly useful for professionals in this industry to have time to network and pick up ideas. We wanted to bring an affordable and accessible one day training event to share some industry expertise and I am extremely pleased that such positive feedback was received."

Edward Spicer, MD, CCR Data Ltd

Delegates came from organisations across the country and included;

Brighton Festival & Dome	Coulthard Institute of Art	The Scout Association
The Hamlin Trust	The Drake Music Project	Exeter Phoenix
Surrey Wildlife Trust	Wood Green Animal Shelter	Battersea Arts Centre
Birmingham Hippodrome	Royal Academy of Dance	Cambridge University
Royal Festival Hall	Dixonraines	CIIR
English Touring Theatre	Welsh National Opera	Nuffield Theatre
Sadlers Wells	Birmingham Symphony Hall	Shelter

Some Delegate Comments include;

"Far more interesting and relevant than it seemed from info. Thought it might be quite dry and dull - it was anything but!"

" Far more enjoyable, interesting, informative and relevant than I expected!"

"Very informative & useful. Amazing variety of people"

"Well thought out and very useful to have delegate notes to anotate"

"Really enjoyed it - would like to bring a colleague another year"

"The whole day has been interesting, informative, professional in organisation and content"

"Very good for networking with other fundraisers"